LEGAL REQUIREMENTS & DOCUMENTATION

Arrangements can be made by your Tour Operator's Representative. If you have booked your package direct with the Hotel, our Wedding Coordinator will be glad to assist you.

In order to get married in Cyprus, you will need the following ORIGINAL documents. The documents need to be either in Greek or English:

CIVIL WEDDINGS:

- Minimum Stay: 3 working days, the time required for preparing the paperwork.
- Minimum Age: 18
- Valid Passports with at least 3 months expiry date after the date of travel.
- Birth Certificates - original certified documents.
- Statutory Declaration (also known as Sworn Affidavit or Certificate of No Impediment) signed by a solicitor or notary public confirming your marital status, i.e. divorced, widowed or single, and that you are free to marry. This document must be dated, signed and stamped by the issuing solicitor or notary public. This document is best obtained between 8 - 12 weeks prior to the wedding date.
- Copies of Two Witnesses' Passports (copy of photo page).
- Decree Absolute (in case of divorce).
- Death Certificate (in case of widow or widower).
- Adoption Certificate (in case of adoption).
- Deed Poll Certificate (in case of a change of name) – must be stamped by a solicitor.

  For all Civil Weddings the Wedding License Fee applies, cost €281.92 plus an additional €200.00 call out fee for the Registrar to come to the hotel to perform the wedding.

ANGLICAN CEREMONIES:

- Documents required as above including Baptism Certificate from either the bride or groom. Prior to the wedding, you will need to meet with the Priest who will be marrying you. License Fee: €600.00 for Weddings and €390.00 for Blessings or Renewal of Vows.

CATHOLIC CEREMONIES:

Upon your decision to marry, you must contact your local parish priest of your intent to marry overseas. He will then need to view the Birth Certificates of both parties. Your local priest will forward all necessary documents to the priest in Cyprus (we can supply relevant contact details).
- Catholic weddings in Cyprus can only be performed at the Larnaca District Office and must be preceded by a Civil Ceremony.
